Bryan Evans | Executive Firm Administrator | JB Entreprises

As the Executive Firm Administrator at JB Entreprises, he would like to welcome you to our family. As an experienced administrator, he has worked for many companies from the private to the public sectors, and must say that he has found the most enjoyment in the work done here at JB Entreprises. Being able to perform this work in such an amazing environment has been incredible. His responsibility is to make sure that you feel welcomed and that your concerns and needs are met, both efficiently and timely, to the best of the firm's ability.

His duties as Executive Firm Administrator include managing the firm's administration and technology. His education in Systems Administration, Project Management and Business Administration has prepared him for this career, while his work experience with highly regarded Not-For-Profit and For-Profit corporations has allowed me to perfect his skills in a way that has made him an asset to many entities across the country. He hopes to utilize this expertise and experience to aide each of our clients and staff towards reaching their goals and becoming better for themselves and the companies which they own, manage, or otherwise serve. One of his mottos in life is, "Live life by design and not by default." He endeavors each day to propel himself and others to live a designed life with purposeful direction.

Please review the enclosed information, which includes an engagement agreement accompanied by a cover letter which explains the additional contents of this welcome packet. We are so excited about the opportunity to serve you and once again, we welcome you to the family!

Timothy L. Baldwin, JD | Managing Partner | JB Entreprises

Timothy is the founder and managing partner of JB Entreprises, S.C. Law & Strategy which launched in 2007. However, he has been practicing law since 2000. For nearly a decade, Attorney Baldwin served as a United States Treasury Revenue Agent auditing small to midsize businesses before becoming the Anti-Money Laundering Coordinator for the state of Iowa, Nebraska and Wisconsin. With an Under Graduate degree and Financial background in accounting , Attorney Baldwin went on to work with Price Waterhouse Coopers , the largest CPA firm in the world, as a law clerk where he handled S.E.C filings and state tax issues. Armed with his background and experience, Attorney Baldwin in 2000 opened up his own practice to champion small to midsize corporate businesses in need of legal and business strategies.

With this epiphany JB Entreprises came to be. Attorney Baldwin spent several years developing entrepreneurial business owners to help them recognize that lawyers are not only for individual businesses that are in trouble, but also for businesses that aspire to succeed. Attorney Baldwin's vision includes developing opportunities for the entrepreneur to compete in today's market not only against competitors and vendors, but also against government regulations.

After first being recruited by a large firm and recognizing that his services were pricing his clients out of the traditional legal service of hourly rates, Attorney Baldwin started his new firm at his client's request and out of necessity cultivated four thriving practices areas. These include our Corporate Division, our Civil Division, our Criminal Division and our Child Advocacy/Family Law Division.

JB Entreprises, S.C Law & Strategy has embarked upon a mission to be the change agent in the community through legal analysis and economic theory to bring about social change, embracing conservative ideals and applying them to social inequities. He was recognized as a leader by his peers at his Alma Mater Carthage College, and was elected as the President of the Student Government in his senior year for his undergraduate. He then went on to receive the 2006 Milwaukee Magazine's Super Lawyers Rising Star, and in 2007 attained the Social Justice Award from Darrell Lynn Hines Academy where he served on the Board of Directors. Attorney Baldwin has spent his career being a concierge for others and has created a firm resource to serve the community on a larger scale.

Attorney Baldwin continues to promote the professional development of staff, young lawyers, the business of clients, and the continued engagements with the greater Milwaukee area.
